Attack on people of Indian origin in South Africa

1937. SHRI SURESH KALMADI: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the report about attacks on the life and property of the people of Indian origin in Natal province of South Africa by tribal elements after the release of Dr. Mandela; and

(b) if so, what steps Government are taking to contain such incidents in future ?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI I. K. GUJRAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The violence reported in the Kwazulu homeland in the Natal area is not primarily directed against South Africans of Indian origin, but is a product of the conflict between the Inkatha party of the Zulus and the broader based United Democratic Front. The root cause of this conflict between two largely Black parties is the apartheid system itself. The Government of India has supported continued international pressure on South Africa by means of sanctions and boycott, until steps towards dismantlement of apartheid are taken by the South African Government. This will lead to lessening of communal tensions and enable the resolution of internal conflicts.
